

It encompasses the functional areas of accounting particularly on the recognition, measurement, disclosure and presentation of financial statements of multinational companies particularly their foreign operations used worldwide. It dealt with in-depth understanding of the standards, guidelines, and rules issued by the supranational organizations.