

A 57-year-old man is brought to the ED by his son at 10 AM after experiencing left arm numbness, slurred speech, and dizziness. They both verify that this was around 9:30 AM, as it was just as they were teeing off on hole 6.