

1– technology has been explaining everything you need to know to learn in a easy way for example (if a student didn't understand how to solve a math equation or anything else he can simply search it up online through youtube and they will find many ways and methods that explain the same question).During this age, a replacement group of employers is required to figure efficiently which will maintain and develop the new technology in homes and businesses.