Manager is someone whose primary responsibility is to carry out the management process which includes the four functions of the management which are planning, organizing, leading and controlling the human, financial, physical and informational resources to achieve the organizational goals.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com