

2) Recommendations for developers and companies: o Establishing the principles of security and privacy: Standardizing security and privacy procedures in all stages of product development.