

Currently, wireless data represents about 15 to 20% of all air time.