

Let us now talk about solutions for the causes mentioned above. Secondly, the government can provide bridges, and dig side roads to open more than one path and reduce the crisis. Thirdly, widening the streets and creating more than one lane to go and more than one to come.