

Article 27 was included to emphasize the importance of cultural participation as a fundamental human right.