

Free composition Arabic is an ancient language known for its beauty and history its used for many things like writing poetry telling stories and discussing important topics like science and religion when you see Arabic writing .it Looks elegant because it's written from right to left.people use Arabica in various ways like writing on mosques or in the Quran It helps people from different backgrounds communicate and understand each other better which is pretty amazing!