

1-Enhanced Planning and Scheduling:Use advanced project management tools to create detailed plans and schedules that account for safety measures.6-Continuous Improvement:Implement a feedback loop where safety practices are regularly reviewed and improved.2-Resource Allocation:Ensure that sufficient resources, including personnel and equipment, are allocated to both safety and productivity.5-Parallel Processing:Where possible, conduct safety inspections and other safety-related activities in parallel with other project tasks to avoid delays.