Dear Manager, I would like to explain the problems I faced on my first morning at work. They reset my password, and I successfully logged on to the intranet. I could not log on to the intranet because my password had expired. I prioritised fixing my password because I needed access to the system to complete my important report before 12:00.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com