

Kabsa and Mandi are regarded as national dishes in all the GCC. Kabsa's cultural significance lies in its association with special occasions, family gatherings, festive celebrations, embodying the essence of Arabian hospitality and culinary art. Aromatic spices like cardamom, cinnamon, cloves, and saffron play a vital role in creating the dish's signature fragrance. The flavorful profile of Mandi is characterized by a harmonious blend of spices, smokiness, and tender meat.