

Creating is done in a simple way. You have several tools, as well as a grid, with which you can clearly see where the bottom of your model is. There are also a lot of customizable elements with which creating things becomes easier. Using basic geometric figures, you can try to make any project.