

Cleanup measures can directly remove the excess nutrients such as nitrogen and phosphorus from the water.