

The main idea is the central or most important concept of a piece of writing or speech.