

2 – Varied Client Needs: Each client may have a completely different vision for their website, which can make it challenging to meet specific requirements. 3 – Compatibility Across Devices and Browsers: websites must work seamlessly across all devices (smart phones, tablets, desktops) and browsers. 4 – Time and budget constraints: Meeting client expectations within a specified timeline and budget.