

Delivery box offers a unique and useful service, with most people relying on orders from websites.– It closes automatically when a weight is placed inside it, so do not worry that the delivery man will forget to close it. – Its price is suitable for all people and is suitable for the features it offers. After that, he places the order and the box closes automatically, through the sensors in it that work by measuring weight, after closing the box from the outside, you can open it from inside the house at any time you want. Fund features and benefits: – There is no need for you to be at home, as it saves the time and effort spent on receiving orders in the traditional way. The smart box is made of steel and is resistant to rust and the rest of the Saudi weather factors, such as dust, rain, and harsh sun. There is a foam at the bottom that absorbs shocks, so do not worry about the items breaking.