

Major External Enterprise Environmental Factors (EEFs) for the Project Regulatory Requirements Market Conditions Economic Factors Competitive Landscape Technological Trends Details of Two Selected EEFs 1.By considering these external EEFs, we can make informed decisions that align our project with the broader educational landscape and regulatory environment, ultimately contributing to its success.This factor will necessitate thorough planning and documentation to ensure that all courses meet the required criteria, potentially extending the project timeline if revisions are needed.Market Conditions Inclusion: Demand for specific qualifications and courses Trends in student enrollment and demographics Competitor offerings and market positioning Impact of EEFs on the Project 1.Conversely, if competitor offerings are too similar or if market demand is declining, we may need to adjust our curriculum or marketing strategies, which could impact our project scope and timeline.2.