

1. The domain expert is a knowledgeable and skilled person capable of solving problems in a specific area or domain and he is the most important player in the expert system development team 2. The knowledge engineer is someone who is capable of designing, building and testing an expert system. 3. 4.