

The villa consists of two main blocks: the upper block is advanced over the lower block, providing a shaded area on the ground floor and protecting the outdoor areas from direct sunlight.