

We all agree that world class education is not just about what we learn in classrooms. Co-op basically provides work opportunities to students in their relevant sectors, while they are studying. This prepares the students for the real world by introducing them early to the work environment and also inculcates discipline.