Online Shopping and E-Commerce Online shopping has become very popular in recent years because it is convenient and fast.They simply add items to their shopping cart, choose a payment gateway, and receive a digital receipt by email.Many companies also provide a warranty, which allows customers to return faulty products.Customers can buy products from a virtual store at any time without leaving their homes.Online stores often offer lower prices than physical shops.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com