

Middle childhood: from 6 to 11 years .Hallmarks of this period are improved athletic abilities; participation in organized games with rules; more logical thought processes; mastery of fundamental reading, writing, math, and other academic knowledge and skills; and advances in understanding the self, morality, and friendship. Young people begin to establish autonomy from the family and to define personal values and goals⁵.