

An interior designer plans, researches, coordinates, and manages these enhancement projects.