

College is expensive, especially if you live away from home. Many students go into great debt to pay for academic education and living expenses.