

Defining goal: preserving and enhancing the welfare of those with whom one is in frequent personal contact (the 'in-group'). Individual Traits: helpful, honest, forgiving, responsible, loyal, true friendship, mature love, sense of belonging, meaning in life, a spiritual life. Benevolence and conformity values both promote cooperative and supportive social relations. Benevolence values emphasize voluntary concern for others' welfare.