

The UAE has strengthened its experience in the digital economy with the ability of its productive sectors to respond to quarantine requirements and operate companies remotely, which reflects the modernity and the power of UAE economy and its smart and quick response to shocks.