

One day, Ahmed was driving his car home after a long day at work. Ahmed got out of his car shocked but safe, while the young man had small injuries. The police did a quick investigation and found out that the accident happened because of speeding and the reckless driver not following traffic rules. Suddenly, a car appeared, driving very fast.