

The story of the film talks about a child who was bullied because of a disfigurement in his face, and he becomes events, and he tries to take revenge for two people who bully him