

2. Common Aspects between Religions People around the world are whether brought together or divided by their Cultural Identities and by belonging to one Civilization or another. There are three beliefs that are common throughout all religions, no matter what culture they come from, no matter who founded the religion, and no matter who practices the religion. In the previous lesson, we have seen that religion is one of the most important components of a culture which is a fragment of Civilization.