

We can use solar energy to operate self-service machines instead of using electricity, paying bills, hiring employees, and paying salaries. This is how we save the most money and earn more profit.