Massacre': Dozens killed by Israeli fire in Gaza while collecting food aid More than 100 killed and about 750 wounded after Israeli forces fired at Palestinians trying to get flour for their families as famine stalks the Strip.Over the past few days, Palestinians gathered in large groups waiting for aid trucks on Salah al–Din Street near Gaza City have been shot at by Israeli forces, said Al Jazeera's Hani Mahmoud, reporting from Rafah in the enclave's south.More than 100 Palestinians have been killed and some 700 others wounded after Israeli troops opened fire on hundreds waiting for food aid southwest of Gaza City, health officials say, as the besieged enclave faces an unprecedented hunger crisis.The Gaza Ministry of Health said on Thursday said at least 112 people were killed and more than 750 wounded, with the Palestinian Ministry of Foreign Affairs condemning what it said was a cold–blooded "massacre". The ministry said the attack was part of Israel's ongoing "genocidal war".The dead and wounded had been taken to four medical centres: al–Shifa, Kamal Adwan, Ahli and the Jordanian hospitals.
