

The usual adult dose of a drug is the amount that ordinarily produces the medicinal effect intended in the adult patient. o The usual pediatric dose of a drug is the amount that ordinarily produces the medicinal effect intended in infant or child patient.