

The General Organization for Social Insurance seeks to achieve the vision of a society that enjoys sustainable and advanced social security, by providing comprehensive financial protection and care to beneficiaries at various stages of life.