

In animal studies, after 8 week of forced treadmill exercise or voluntary wheel running, female BALB/e mice received an intravenous injection of MMT line 66 tumor cells; animals were then randomized into continuation of activity, cessation of activity, initiation of activity, and maintenance of sedentary condition for 3 week (112).