

* Presidential level: That's by the presiden * The level of planning decision: That is, by the board of senior management, which is the one who makes long-term plans.* Level of direct supervision: Any president is a department or supervisor who implements tactical or short-term plans for weekly plans.* Level of implementation: The employee assigned to carry out the weekly plans.