

Secondary school and college are essential in your academic journey, and you may say they look similar, but they differ in many ways if you pay close attention, and I am going to compare Secondary school and college in this essay. And that is very good in my opinion, second I noticed they both have projects that are done in real life and not only on paper!, lastly I saw a welcoming environment that encourages social interactions and creates new friendships.