

Mental health problems have not been studied in cardiac patients in the Palestinian population.