

Aromatic Hydroxylation ● Aromatic compounds are metabolized to the corresponding epoxides (arene oxides). ● The epoxide is formed through an addition of an activated oxygen on a heme group to one of the double bonds in the aromatic ring