

The most abundant compound in the olives phenolic fraction was hydroxytyrosol, with a concentration of 410.2  $\pm$  15.8 mg/kg fresh weight (Table 1), while tyrosol showed a concentration 10 times lower.