

Partial Dentures: dentures that restore a partially edentulous arch; a partial denture can be described as a removable partial denture or a fixed partial denture based on the patient's capability to remove or not remove the prosthesis, respectively. Partial denture construction: The science and techniques of designing and constructing partial dentures. It is either acrylic type or metallic type (cobalt/chrome)