

When to send an update request email? Send an update request when a deadline is near and no response has been received. If important decisions depend on the