

Managerial accounting keeps the management fully informed about the latest position of the concern through reporting.