This point will define the QC, its requirements, and its procedures for the programmatic elements of the typical QC. Also, it will introduce the importance of it to describe the current status of the target Nigerian oil The QA/QC involves specific quality practices and resources which are committed to defining a clear basis for work procedures and to ensure consistency, accurate and reliable data collation. The plan covers field team selections, equipment calibrations and maintenance, sample collection, handling, laboratory analysis, data (results) management, regulatory supervision etc. In order to achieve the main target of our mission, it is important to undertake a review of disclosed information and other publicly available data pertinent to environmental, health and safety issues and risks associated with the site. Hereunder review and discussion of all the available documents supplied from the Clint. ● From the year 2016 to 2022, Shell Petroleum Development Company, SPDC on behalf of the Joint Venture partners (Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation, Nigerian Agip Oil Company, and Total E & P), carried out an Environmental Evaluation Studies (EES) and Environmental Complain Monitoring reports of the Oil and Gas Field Facilities which lies within OML 11 field. A remediation Action plans was developed for sites affected by oil spillage to address the resulting environmental impacts. The remediation activities of all affected sites were reported

Summarized by © lakhasly.com