The speaker in this poem reflects on how to deal with limitations and make the best of any situation. Ultimately, the poem addresses the speaker's attempts to avoid focusing on the pain of not realizing her desires. In the first stanza, she reflects on work. The speaker points out that a choice to act always exists, and acting allows her to keep moving forward.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com