

So during the operational process, hotel team members are provided with personal protective equipment and enhanced training to keep them safe. We are ready to take both preventive and protective measures to deal with any developments.