

Outcome: End of training: The end of the training was a moment of evaluation and farewell. Final evaluation: A comprehensive evaluation was conducted of my performance during the training period. This included reviewing the tasks I completed, the extent to which I achieved the objectives, and how I applied the skills I learned. This feedback included an assessment of my success in the tasks and the opportunities I have for improvement. *I received positive feedback from my trainers and colleagues, reflecting their satisfaction with my performance. Providing feedback: I received feedback from my trainers and colleagues on my performance. 2- Meeting expectations: *Meeting expectations At the end of the training, I had achieved the objectives that were set for me and exceeded the expected performance standards. *I reached the personal goals I was seeking to achieve through the training. The end may include the following: 1.2.