

Evaluation For your evaluation, discuss how well you think things went. This section is a good place to include the theory and the work of other authors – remember it is important to include references in reflective writing. Why/why not?