

when a camel crosses the road an RFID tag will be attached to it and an alarm will sound followed by a red led warning to the drivers in addition a speed pump will appear as well as a caution to slow down