

Also , the Gulf Cooperation Council countries did Supply chain development and management Improving date palm farming practices and the initiation of better post-harvest handling procedures; processing and production of value-added products by focusing on added value varieties; Export premium date products with consistency in supply of high-quality varieties; market and marketing development